PMHA Member Benefits

As a member of PMHA, you will quickly see that our primary goal is to be your one-stop resource center.

Networking/Educational Opportunities
Meet and greet old and new friends at the many educational and social gatherings offered throughout the year.

- Industry Networking Conference – held in March – a multiple-day, industry focused educational program mixed with an opportunity to connect socially with other industry professionals.
- PAC Golf Outing – held in June – PMH PAC annual fundraiser is an excellent social networking opportunity and a great excuse to get you out of the office and to spend a day in the sun.
- District Meetings – held in July – PMHA takes our brain power on the road. As a member, you can attend any one of the 7 regional informal District Meeting free of charge. You get to ask questions…you get extra information on all the hot topics without having to travel too far.
- Community Symposium – held in November – PMHA offers a full day “Community” focused educational program in central PA. Brining you the tools you need to be a successful business person in today’s competitive Housing Market.
- PMHA is Social! – Stay connected to the association and other industry friends. Like us on Facebook and be sure to follow us on Instagram, Twitter and LinkedIn. Subscribe to our YouTube channel – all social media links are available in the footer of our website (www.pmha.org).

Advocacy
PMHA serves as industry spokesperson and liaison with legislators as well as regulatory agencies on the local, state and federal levels. In concert with our full-time lobbyist, Milliron & Goodman, LLC, we constantly monitor and work towards sound and cost effective legislative and regulatory changes.

- Active Political Action Committee (PAC) to raise awareness of issues related to legislation that may have an impact on the industry.

Resources
- PA Perspective is PMHA’s bi-monthly newsletter that is chock-full of valuable information. Plus…advertising rates are very reasonable. It’s a great resource tool and a fantastic advertising opportunity!
- PMHA Library is full of current and historical information on the manufactured housing industry. All of these journals and articles are available to PMHA members at no cost.
- PMHA’s Website is updated regularly and includes current classes, events, an online Membership Directory and a “member’s only” area.
- Member only Resource Materials are available and include sample forms and information invaluable to community owners/managers, retailers, manufacturers, installers, etc.
