

ACCREDITED COMMUNITY MANAGER (ACM[®]) PROGRAM

Christine "Chrissy" Jackson
St. Petersburg, FL

Chrissy Jackson has enjoyed a successful career in property and nonprofit management with responsibility for leading operations for a manufactured home community, three nonprofits, as well as owning a consulting business. She has been a valuable member to the manufactured housing industry not only in helping community owners with her management handbooks but also her contribution to the Accredited Community Management (ACM) program which she has been involved with since 1986. Chrissy was instrumental in updating three ACM textbook updates and was involved with the major revision of the course curriculum.

She is the author of three textbooks, more than thirty handbooks on property management, hundreds of magazine articles, and is an internationally recognized speaker for state and national conventions and private company training.

With a successful career, retirement brought the opportunity to address higher education, which she always felt was lacking. She received her bachelor's degree from Eckerd College in 2016, Master of Science degree in management and leadership from Western Governor's University in 2020 and a doctorate in business administration from Capella University in January 2024.

Living in St. Petersburg, Florida, she loves not shoveling snow, feeling the gulf breezes, and having an endless supply of books. Chrissy's passion, in addition to learning, is her family consisting of four adult children, 14 grandchildren, and 11 great-grandchildren.

Life, she says, is for living, learning, and loving.

Important Student information

If you've never taken an ACM[®] course, you will start with Course 1, followed by Course 2. After you've successfully completed both courses and passed both tests, you may apply for the ACM[®] designation.

If you've previously taken an ACM[®] course(s), and want to receive the ACM[®] designation, then you will need to do the following:

- If you've successfully completed ACM[®] 101, you will need to take Course 1 test online. If you pass the exam, you can take Course 2 and complete the required test and in-class project. Contact Mary at mary@pmha.org or at 717-774-3440 for information on how to arrange to take the Course 1 test online at no cost.
- If you've successfully completed both ACM[®] 101 and 201, you'll need to take Course 2, pass the test and complete the in-class project.
- If you've successfully completed ACM[®] 101, 201 and 301, but have not completed your business plan, you'll need to take Course 2, pass the test and complete the in-class project.
- If you've completed ACM[®] 101, 201 and 301, but have not completed your business plan, you can still submit your business plan to MHEI and then apply for the ACM[®] designation, if you prefer not to take an additional class.

Educational Opportunity

UPDATED PROGRAM!

Distinguish Yourself as a Professional

Accredited Community Manager

sponsored by:

Pennsylvania Manufactured Housing Association

The ACM® certification was developed by the Manufactured Housing Educational Institute (MHEI®) to raise the standard of training for manufactured housing community managers. This program educates the land-lease community operators on issues unique to their career. The ACM® designation distinguishes community managers who have experience managing manufactured home communities, have successfully completed the ACM program of education and have committed to upholding the ACM code of ethics. The ACM designation provides the opportunity for community managers to identify themselves as committed professionals.

The ACM Program:

- Provides the opportunity for you to enhance your community management skills
- Deals with issues you face on the job every day
- Provides networking opportunities with other industry professionals
- Helps you advance your career in community management

ACM Program Requirements:
